2020 Election Results and Changes for Wisconsin

Federal Level

- Senate
 - Neither Senator was up for re-election as their terms are 6 years. Sen. Johnson's next election would be 2022 and Sen. Baldwin's next election would be 2024.
- House
 - Only one seat changed but stayed under the same party control. District 5 was held by Jim Sensenbrenner, who retired. Republican Scott Fitzgerald won the seat. He is the current state Senate majority leader.

State Level

- Assembly - Democrats gained two seats in Republican strongholds (Mequon and Brookfield), but Republicans still hold a majority
- Senate - Republicans gained two seats and still hold a majority
- Governor - no change as the office wasn't up for re-election

Preparation for 2021

- Federal bills for the Living Donor Protection Act and Immunosuppressive Drug Coverage will need to be reintroduced once the new Congress convenes in January 2021.
- Several presidential Executive Orders that have been kidney-friendly will stay in effect unless President Biden retracts or overrides them after he takes office OR they are challenged in the courts. Neither is likely.
- NKF began working with both the Trump and Biden campaigns earlier this year to share information on legislative and policy priorities and will work closely with the Biden Administration to ensure important priorities continue.

What can you do? The many types of advocacy.

- Share your story – you never know who you will inspire
- Use social media – Twitter, Instagram and Facebook
 - #mykidneymylife brings posts to the attention of NKF
- Socially-distanced group presentations
 - Zoom or other platforms can be useful and PowerPoint is surprisingly easy to use
 - Church groups, civic organizations, fraternal organizations or other gatherings can provide opportunities
- Volunteer for the NKF Kidney Advocate Committee or for NKF-WI
- Letters to the editor of local newspapers about kidney issues
- Any other suggestions – particularly for those who aren't comfortable speaking in front of groups?
